“ I adored my aunt! My fondest memories of her were when I was a child, and my mom and I would stay with her when we would visit from Texas. She and my uncle would open their home to us. I loved playing in my cousins' playhouse, and my aunt would always bake me a chocolate pie. My mom loved her little sister. She would always say that she was sunshine on a cold morning. I miss her smile. I am sorry I had to find out on my own that she had passed away. I loved talking to her on the phone these past several years. She was there for me when my mother died. Later, she reached out to me when my husband died and my brother passed away. She loved her family; she lived for her family.

“ For as long as I have known Gretchen, she would always share many of her memories, some of them more than once ;}, She always spoke of her children, grand children and great grand children. She will be greatly missed.
