I am grateful that I knew her and am so saddened for you all. You are a wonderful family and I know this pain is deep. So much of her will love on with you. All my love to you all, today, and always. “ I worked with Karen for many years at Northmont although I was at Central Office. Karen was always cheerful and up beat. I always enjoyed her short visits to my office dropping off money, payroll sheets, etc. and our conversations on the phone. I hate to hear of her passing. My deepest sympathy for your family, you have truly suffered a great loss.
