“ Sherry, Kyle, and Kayle, We are so sorry about Larry's death. It was a shock to us. Larry has been in our lives for a long time. He helped us build the house we live in in 1998 and 1999. He painted many many (hundreds?) of spindles for our stairway. We'll always remember him for that, and Sundays out at Bill Garwood's house. Please know that you have been in our prayers.

“ Larry was talking to me about those spindles not too long ago, only he seem to think there were thousands of them! lol Thank you for the food you brought,we enjoyed it very much. And thank you most of all for your prayers.

“ I worked with Larry as his supervisor for the past few years. Uncle Larry as I called him because we spent so many nights together at work. I considered all of us In rubber finish family. I am still in disbelief about his passing. I know he had to battling something awful for him to miss work. I could always count on Uncle Larry being at work every night. I'll miss his potty mouth most. He would tell you what he thought and what he thought everybody else was thinking as well. He tried to play tough, but you could tell deep, deep, deep down inside he was as gentle as a blue bird. Your presence is truly missed! Rest on Uncle Larry until we meet again. Gone but you'll never be forgotten

“ Thank you for the kind words Krystal. Larry thought a lot of you! I'm glad you were able to see past the toughness, some people couldn't.

“ I have worked with Larry for year's! We kept people on an uproar on break's.He will be so missed! He'd crack me up at lunch he would always check out what everyone braught to eat. If we didn't finish our lunch we would always give it to our what I called garbage disposal....lol I don't care what it was he'd always say give it here! When Larry, Bill,and Loren all sat with us at the same time look out!!! I called them the 3 grumpy old men, but it was so funny for them to go at it. It would get loud sometimes in that break room, but the memories are priceless! I cannot tell you how shocked I am that he is gone, but not forgotten. He was so looking forward to retiring and a grandbaby on the way. I pray for him that he is at peace and that his family will be ok. Sherry I know you have to be a strong lady cause you put up with Larry all that time...lol He use to tell us he had to come to work cause you wasn't having him home to sit in your chair and changing the channels while you was trying to watch t.v. Larry liked to make you think he was a hard butt but I always told him I knew his wife ruled the rooste! I could just go on and on about different stories of him. R.I.P. MY FRIEND!

“ Thank you Kelly. Larry talked about all of you so much I feel like I know you! He would come home and tell me about those times in the lunch room and we would both have a good laugh. I used to ask him why I had to fix him a lunch when you guys would feed him every night! He thought you ladies were fine cooks. His friends there made working bearable for him. Thank you for sharing your thoughts. It helps.

“ I have known Larry for most of my life as he is married to my sister. For I don't know how many years now but he always bought me a bag of peanut M&M's for Christmas. He was always good to me. He loved his Buckeyes and racing. I loved Larry and miss him a lot. Rest in peace Larry and be reunited with your dad.

“ Larry was truly my best friend at work. We used to refer to ourselves as the two grumpy men sitting in the balcony on the muppets.

Larry and I talked about everything. Since I am a few months older we shared a lot of common experiences.

I know Larry made it to heaven so now he is truly ticked off.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.
