“ Our deepest sympathy. Gretchen and I were reminiscing this morning about one of the times we visited Ohio before we were married, and Mark took us back to the airport, and we had a funny conversation about marriage. He will be missed, and though we're over in Florida, please reach out to us when you need a listening ear to grieve or cry. - Alan, Gretchen, and Avi.

“ To Mark's family - There are no words that can adequately comfort you at this difficult time. Please know that we are all keeping you in our thoughts as you work your way through this. We are always just a phone call away anytime you would like someone to speak with and help you through this. I will leave you with a picture of Mark and I from 2004.

“ Some of my most vivid, dearly regarded childhood memories are with the Sidaras family. They had the bounciest trampoline EVER, and I was so jealous. But so happy I got to use it when we went for a visit! In my early years, we spent every Fourth of July at their house, watching the fireworks from the backyard. The older kids often watched from the top of a wooden play tower, but I was usually too scared to climb it and watched from the ground. The first time I was brave enough to use sparklers was at their house. I also remember watching Cone Heads on the tv for the first time when festivities were still going on outside but I was feeling a bit shy. What a fun memory. I'm thankful for it. I'll always hold these memories dear. It has been many years since that time, but my heart still hurts like this was yesterday. It's hard to explain. Annette, Brad, Ashley, Megan - my thoughts, love, and prayers are with you.

“ Brad, my condolences to you and your family. I may not have ever met your father, but I know he had to have been a good person because he raised a great son like you. If I can do anything for you and your family, please do not hesitate to ask. My prayers go out to you and your entire family.

“ Mark was a sweet soul. As children we played together, ran in circles like children love to do, road bikes together, I remember he played barbies with me; he was Tom and always pulled the hair of my Barbie. Fast forward years whenever we'd come from Puerto Rico to Miami he invited us to the fire station gave us a tour and posed with him so Titi Gorin would have a picture with Mark dressed up as a fireman. When I moved back to Miami I remember sharing the birthday's of our children together. Nice times. After Hurricane Andrew, since we lost our house I remember he showed up with a whole bunch of toys for my kids. The thing that our kids cherish is playing in Nana's front yard under the big tree. Priceless moments! I loved the song he would sing about his daddy. I love you Mark! This Picture is me at the left and Diana at the right at Rene Javier's wedding.

“ Dear Sweetheart, my heart aches over your loss of Mark. Mark was like another son to me. He was so wonderful when Tom was still with us to drive us to Sarasota to Tom's doctors appointment. And then how he helped us get rid of the rats that had got into our Condo. I am still rejoicing over getting rid of them. How you, and Mark gave Jim and I, a whole week of planned out fun things to do. There are not enough words to describe how Mark has impacted my life Spiritually. I will never forget when he was taking our water heater out to close up holes behind it so the rats couldn't get in that way. He stopped and prayed for GOD'S WISDOM, to help him to do the job, to get rid of the rats. How many men do you know who does that? Mark, I love you, and miss you so much . I will see you again when our LORD calls my name. Mama
